Good evening everyone. A Happy New Year! to you all, and welcome to tonight's production of Willis Hall's Kidnapped at Christmas, a play written for children and with pantomime in mind.

*Chairman's
Notes*

My sincere thanks to Pauline and her cast for all the hard work that they have put into this production and I am sure that you would all like to join me in giving a warm welcome back on stage to Don Pugh. My thanks also to Adrian and his stage crew for their usual high standard of work and also to the front of house team.

It is your continued support that makes it all worthwhile, so I would like to wish you all a very enjoyable, fun filled evening and don't forget to join in as well.

*Director's
Notes*

elcome one and all to our first production of 2006. It has been billed as a "panto with a difference", that is, no singing and no dancing, but lots of interaction with the characters.

May I take this opportunity to thank the cast and the production team for all their hard work and dedication, and ask you, the audience, to sit back, relax and enjoy the performance.

With thanks.

Pauline Mills
